

approach judiciary.

(iii) Skill Development.

UP-DATE

1/11/17

The President requested Shri Basab Banerjee, Head Standards & QA, National Skill Development Council (NSDC) to apprise members on the initiative of the Government on Skill Development.

Shri Basab Banerjee appreciated BAI for its proactive step for inviting him and made a power point presentation on Construction Industry's present position of skilled manpower availability with its project requirement of Skill Development in the near future. He projected the demand of construction workers for the next 10 years as under:-

Projected Incremental Human Resources Requirement between 2008 and 2022 (in L,000s)

Sr. No.	Type of Personnels.	Incremental Requirement
1.	Project Managers & Engineers.	473
2.	Supervisors.	473
3.	Foremen.	946
4.	Crane operators.	7
5.	Electricians.	473
6.	Welders.	473
7.	Bar-Benders.	1419
8.	Plumbers.	1183
9.	Carpenters.	1892
10.	Surveyors.	47
11.	Others including glazing workers, painters, equipment operators.	459
12.	Minimally educated.	38038
13.	Masons (stone-work, tiling, plastering, polishing).	1419
	Total	47032